Deborah A. Carson, CPA Elected Chairman of Board of Winchester Savings Bank

Winchester, MA – Peter J. Segerstrom, President and CEO of Winchester Savings Bank, is proud to announce the election of Deborah A. Carson, CPA as Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

"Debbie has been an essential member of our Board for 25 years," Segerstrom said. "Her dedication, experience, and knowledge of our industry make her the ideal person to lead our Board. She is wonderfully adept at building partnerships and guiding decision-making. She is profoundly dedicated to this community and is excellent at engaging others. We are extremely fortunate to have her in this new role."

A Winchester native and 4th-generation Winchester resident, Carson has degrees from Dartmouth and Northeastern. She served on the Bank's Audit Committee for 18 years and has been on the Board of Investment for five years.

"Winchester Savings Bank is such a great institution in our town and in the surrounding communities. It takes pride in its focus on sound management as well as its commitment to giving back. I am honored to be part of the Board, and I am especially excited for the future."

Carson is a former corporator of Winchester Hospital and a past treasurer and host family for Winchester ABC. She has had her own tax and accounting practice for almost 30 years and is in her 10th year as CFO at Waterfield Sotheby's International Realty.

Founded in 1871, Winchester Savings Bank is a mutually chartered, independent, community bank offering a full line of products and services for individuals and businesses. They have office locations in Winchester, Woburn and Arlington. All deposits are insured in full by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and the Depositors Insurance Fund (DIF).
