David Jutras Joins Winchester Savings Bank as Mortgage Executive

Winchester, MA -- Winchester Savings Bank announces the hiring of David Jutras as a Mortgage Executive.

"We're thrilled to expand our Mortgage team and capabilities with the addition of David Jutras," said Peter J. Segerstrom, President and CEO. "Having worked for banks and mortgage companies big and small, he brings a unique mix of product knowledge and personal service to Winchester Savings".

With nearly 30 years in the industry, David has originated a vast array of home loans, including conventional, First Time Homebuyer, and jumbo mortgages. Fluent in both English and Spanish, he prides himself on making the home buying process as simple as possible for every customer.

"It's an exciting time," he says. "My job is to make sure everything goes smoothly, that people understand their options, and that they feel comfortable and confident every step of the way."

A Methuen resident, David received his Bachelor of Science in Finance & Business Administration from Merrimack College, and a JD from Suffolk University.

He will be working out of the Hammond Square office at 573 Main Street in Woburn but can meet customers at any Bank branch or at another location if it's more convenient. He can be reached at (603) 818-6484 or djutras@winchestersavings.com.

Founded in 1871, Winchester Savings Bank is a mutually chartered, independent, community bank offering a full line of products and services for individuals and businesses. They have office locations in Winchester, Woburn and Arlington. All deposits are insured in full by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and the Depositors Insurance Fund (DIF). To learn more about Winchester Savings Bank, visit them on the web at www.winchestersavings.com, find them on Facebook, or call (781) 729-2130. Winchester Savings Bank is an equal housing lender and an equal opportunity employer.
