IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

I hereby certify that all of the above statements are true and complete and are made for the purpose of obtaining credit from Winchester Savings Bank (the "Bank"). I authorize the Bank, in connection with this application and any credit renewals or extensions and any collection activities to obtain further credit and employment information from any source, including without limitation any consumer credit reporting agency or any financial institution or employer listed above or identified in a credit report as a grantor of credit to me. I also authorize the Bank to provide information to others in accordance with applicable law about the Bank's credit experience with me. I understand that the Bank will retain this credit application whether or not it is approved.

When any loan funds are disbursed directly to the Borrower, the following applies:
 "Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: the costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specific credit transactions or accounts); any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account)."
